

20th Path The Hermit

The path of the way-shower, bene there, knows the road ahead but still treats it with the utmost respect, knowing the way is not an excuse to hurry. He shows the way to those who have higher knowledge, often leading to greater connection.

Are you ready to accept changes in your life, changes that up your spiritual game? You may review the past, how you felt and what new attitude it's brought you. Choose what's next, and like The Hermit keep moving forward without constant debate.

The lamp is more than a light shining the way, it's the Eucharistic host, symbolising the commitment to more spiritual aspects in your life. He sometimes carries a wand or a staff, opening the worlds of magic to your life.

The tarot card is very clear, a reminder that you're always guided even when you may feel anything but. Energy is always around you, where's there's energy there's connection. It also highlights where you show the way for others, where ego-less words and actions can help inspire others in their own search for a more fulfilling life, spiritually in particular.

Tiphareth to Chesed 'The Intelligence of Will', so called because it is the means of preparation of all and each created being, and by this intelligence the existence of the Primordial Wisdom becomes known.

Guidance

Accepting is not the same as settling, it's very far from it. Finding yourself in a place of true acceptance is liberating, settling will leave you feeling frustrated, your head full of half completed conversations or things you wished you'd said at the time. Move into acceptance, words will have no effect and you find yourself giving no further thought to what was once a drama. You may be hearing the words 'move on' from friends and family, from your inner voice even, so what does that mean to you and what must happen for you to fully move on? A way shower could appear, someone who has been there and seen it, might even own the T-shirt. He or she has some sound advice for you and it's not all that difficult for you to accept it and find peace with a little help from this new teacher in your life.

Foresight

Like a bee in a tin can a situation is going around and around, buzzing about trying to find a way out. Lift the lid, let out the words you need to say and once done accept that not everyone might agree with you and that's just fine. There's plenty of honey to be found somewhere else.

Revealed

Running between Tiphareth and Chesed this is a path that points the way towards higher masters, towards a list of things you know you want to achieve and the wherefore all to get the job done. It's the Hermit in Tarot, Virgo in astrology as you're shown the way you too are a way shower. Teacher and student.

Activation

Make a list of things still to do in your life, a big or as short a list as you'd like. Now be honest about those things whose time has passed, accept they're no longer for you and let them go. Now light the way for what you can do.

Consolidation Questions
