

21st Path Wheel of Fortune

Here we see ups and downs, it's very clear from the imagery on most Wheel of Fortune cards. It calls you to a Quest, to making a choice about what you truly want from the journey you are on. When you choose the higher calling things seem to open up, when you choose to close to your ears and heart to that call, the Fates appear to cause twists and turns.

Doors will open on this path; opportunities will reveal themselves and the only way ahead is your way. Do not confuse this opening up of pathways as an easier route, often it is not, hard work will still be required but it will be work that brings you joy, not done out of necessity or fear.

This is a journey for your own Holy Grail, that essence of self that sits both in you and external to you, and in blending the personality loves of Netzach with the Soul led peace and love of Chesed this is a path worth travelling.

You do not need to live without comfort, without good things in your life to be spiritual, this path will remind you that having those comforts can spur you on to do more as these day-to-day concerns and needs are met. The truth of manifestation is this, that which means you can have more time to do the true spiritual work you are here to do.

You may find new groups of like-minded souls, it could bring a new job, a move to another area, even country, or an offer that has long been a dream for you.

Netzach to Chesed 'The intelligence of Conciliation and Reward', so called because it receives the divine influence which flows into it from its benedictions upon all and each existence.

Guidance

Life brings ups and downs, but so often what appears to be a down is only so you can rise again having gained new knowledge or perhaps changed your outlook be that metaphorically or physically. You could be called on to be the hero of the piece, to be the one who finds the lost key to success and save the day just as you were fated to do! You're offered guidance at this time, but it may not come easily and do not read guidance as being shown exactly what to do next. You will have to work for it, work at it, commit to what you want to see in your world. Way-showers can appear, only you can open the doors or tread the paths. On a deeper level this could stir a spiritual calling in you, a desire to know more is one thing but knowing why you desire it is another. Expect to be set challenges, decide which ones you wish to pursue safe in the knowledge that the Universe has your back.

Foresight

What can you do to be more conscious of your surroundings, the signs you're receiving, the nudges that push you out of your comfort zone perhaps? Take a moment to consider your current situation and no matter how tough some things appear to be, what is the quest within it?

Revealed

Travelling between Netzach and Chesed this is the path of the Holy Grail, seeking something incredible and as the Tarot card would suggest it comes with ups and down. The Wheel of Fortune is often depicted with people riding high, some clinging on as it turns. Consider where you are on the wheel.

Activation

Do not confuse fate with entitlement, you have to play your part in the cycle, and many have fallen foul of expectation rather than participation. Activate your fate: get a six-month, a year or five-year plan.

Consolidation Questions

Where is Jupiter in your chart, what house, what planets connect to it? You can use Sagittarius here too.

Look at what's happening in your life right now. How is this path showing up? What opportunities are being presented, sometimes this can be about a 'knowing' rather than anything tangible. For example, you just know the new direction you want to take your business to expand it.

Are there people in your life offering you the experience of this path?

What tarot cards reoccur for you, recently or not, ask what it says about this path?

What notes do you have from your path tarot reading?

What card did you pull before your meditation? (When you do it)

Who/what beings did you meet and what did they have to say?
