

Tree of Life Month Four

Temple and Consolidation

Ideas pull the trigger, but instinct loads the gun.

Don Marquis

Venus

Venus, planet of love and yet she governs so much more, money, chocolate and nature for example.

Venus rules our feelings, what we value in life and how art, music and the natural world affect us.

She's grace, charm, peace and our appreciation of all things that fill our heart with joy.

Remember we travel up and down the Tree of Life, she brings you the ability to love deeply as you yourself manifest into this world.

She's the ruler of both Taurus and Libra and if you have her in those signs, she takes on extra significance. If you are one of those signs, she's your ruling planet. If you have her in Scorpio or Aries, she can get a little tetchy if those you love are less than honest with you.

Her greatest gift is that of unconditional love. It's often sited as a way to deal with just about anything and it can seem a little trite, but the truth is as simple as seeing everything as part of the whole plan, and when you let go with Venus by your side it's done in such a way that there is not hiding from the truth; fully accepting the moment and negating all karma as you do.

Her Tarot card is the Empress, the symbol for Venus is often seen on these cards. She's about abundance, birth of an idea and the use of feminine power. If you've been seeing her a lot, it's not only about what you're working on at the moment, it could also be about creating abundance through birthing a new idea.

Pay attention to what sign you have her in, when the Moon is full or New in that sign it may be in contact with Venus, this makes for some emotional moments and opportunities to resolve family issues in particular. If she's reversing when you were born, denoted by a small letter R beside her in red, you may find her domains a challenge, usually that comes through love and/or money.

Releasing your inner Venus

Many of us don't consider ourselves artistic, some are highly orientated that way, but no matter what level of competence you're at with a paintbrush, card making kit or garage band rock-star it's there, it's there, it's in your nature. You've already been asked to create something, how did that go?

Now find something another person has created; a song, a piece of art, a poem perhaps and claim it as your banner for this temple working. When you want to connect to the realms of love play it, look at it, touch that favourite piece of art. Connecting with love through the dedication of another's work, you do it every day, but creating a specific portal for it can help restore balance (Libra) when you feel less than grounded. (Taurus)

Temple Set up

This is where we learn about beauty, your animal instincts and your ability to love unconditionally. It offers Victory over your feelings, a way to acknowledge them and work with them, how to change them through using your own energy perhaps? It's opposite Cassatron's domain of thoughts, so Glorianna provides feelings.

This temple of roses and emeralds is overwhelmingly beautiful, it's the meeting place for gods and goddesses and home to the garden where you meet your guides too.

For our purpose this temple is one of the colour green, once inside it dominates the space and attracts the angelic order of the, Elohim, the gods.

More will be revealed on the MP3!

Use the same set up procedure as before plus the magical image you have chosen, to enhance your temple experience here are some room and altar suggestions, correspondences, that will attract its energy:

The Four sevens in Tarot:

Seven of Wands: Lord of Valour. Feeling the fear and doing it anyway! Have courage in the face of the task ahead and believe in yourself.

Seven of Cups: Lord of Debauch. That way temptation lies, and lust for gain with no thought for others. Stay true to your beliefs.

Seven of Swords: Lord of Futility. No matter what you do, it won't make any difference, right? Not true. Break free by making a difference!

Seven of Disks: Lord of Failure. You get back what you put in, so put in more and get more back! Resist negative self-talk.

The Empress is the Tarot Card

We'll be using the Star path to gain access, it's one of falsehoods and glamour, it looks at the nature of what's real and what is not.

The incense is rose

Colours are pink and green

Flowers are roses

Animals are cats , the Lynx

Crystal is emerald

Traditional Archangel is Haniel

New angelic force is Glorianna

Planet is Venus

Element is Fire

You may also consider flowers, artwork, sheet music, coins?

Glorianna

Part of this journey is working with the new energies for change, some are angelic some appear to be from other dimensions and are introduced by Anuth or Ioniel as such.

Glorianna is the most beautiful energy, she's flame haired, a nod to the element of fire, she's seen in a gown of emerald green and has the feeling of the purest of love. When meeting her it can be overwhelming so the heads up is you might need some tissues for this one!

The Mp3 will be with with you after this session.

Consolidation

‘Just living is not enough . . . One must have sunshine, freedom and a little flower.’ Hans Christian Andersen

I have a dream: is it the same as last month, or have you made some changes?

Astrology: Where is Venus in your chart, what house, what sign? That information is in your natal chart print out. What does it tell you about your ability to love, manage your resources perhaps? What words would you use to describe your emotional responses to your astrology?

Tarot Cards: what cards came up more than once in your daily reading. The four sevens represent this energy, have they been dominant and if so, what suit?

The Celtic Cross, or a three card reading: what information does it have for you?

Glorianna: what guidance did she offer you?

Other temple images and symbolism: Cards, animals, beings, who you saw and what they had to offer you in the way of information.

How has it manifested in my life: On reflection, have you found victory over your feelings?

Moving forward I commit to: using your newfound information what changes can you make to bring more love, beauty and joy into your life?

Homework

- Choose a day and time for your temple
- Set up and complete the temple meditation
- Consolidate your experiences
- Find your magical music, art or object
- Continue to take your daily card
- Continue with interwoven light meditation

Month Five: Month Five: Adaption or Change

Adapting is something we all do, you adapt to bigger jeans instead of looking at the cause and effect of eating much but do you want to change that? You make those choices, nobody else. How can you restore balance in your life, moderation in all things perhaps? How can you do it without feeling you're sacrificing the things you love?
