Introduction

The Moon

The first clue to how we feel about the Moon is the word 'she', we see the Moon to be a feminine energy, and in astrology that is most definitely the case.

She isn't actually a planet, she's a luminary, a guiding light, a title she shares with the Sun from whom she gets her light. That offers us an insight; she's reflective.

The Moon has been worshipped in her time, usually with associations to feminine principles, and it's safe to say her 28 day (27.32 if you want to be precise) cycle is more than likely where this springs from.

She is imbedded in our collective subconscious, the symbolism of the Moon instantly conjures up these words: feminine, emotional, cycles, habits, emotions, madness, time passing, magick, ritual, witchcraft, mother, sister, family, intuition, home, lunacy, werewolves, howling, memory, silver and many more.

All have a place in your subconscious. When you see the Moon, she invokes these images; she draws you in.

Blue Moon

A calendar Blue Moon is when there are two full Moons in the same month, the second one being Blue. A true astrological Blue Moon is a second full Moon in the same astrological sign, much rarer.

Astrologically see these Blue Moon's as the culmination of a series of events, the grand finale.

Eclipses

We all need a push, a shove in the right direction even if it seems to go against what we want. Enter the eclipses. Usually there are four in a year, but there can be up to seven. Astrologically speaking, they are a sign of great change.

Solar Eclipse

The Moon is between the Earth and Sun, a new Moon, the Moon blocks out the Sun, switching off the light, taking away the connection. Imagine it as reboot, do you select the same old, or do you go with the changes on offer?

Lunar Eclipse

During a Lunar Eclipse, Full Moon, the Earth is between the Sun and Moon. We see our own shadow, which is why the Moon can sometimes appear a different colour, it's reflecting Earth. Here's your shadow self, what emotions can you admit to, what do you want to release and what do you want to work with, it offers clearing either way.

New and Full

New Moon

Consider where the Moon is, what does the sign tell you about it's influence, what's the element?

Which area of your own chart is she in when she goes new? How is it showing up in your life, what new projects or opportunities surround you? What do you want to gain from the new Moon energy? How does she make you FEEL?

Get super clear on how you're going to proceed, use the dark of Moon to go on an inward journey, (three days before the new Moon) reduce your schedule, rest and contemplate.

Full Moon

Consider where the Moon is, what does the sign tell you about its influence, what's the element?

Which area of your own chart is she in when she goes full? How is it showing up in your life, what's coming to an end? What do you want to release under the full Moon's energy? How does she make you FEEL?

Get super clear on how you're going to proceed, be ready, not only for the ritual but for opportunities to say your farewells; especially on the Witches Moon, the day after the full Moon.

Tarot Cards

Every major arcana card in the Tarot represents a planet and a sign. This can be useful when working with rituals. Use the High Priestess card to represent the Moon, The Sun card represents the Sun and then the card that represents the sign.

Place them on your altar, sacred space or table. Perhaps use them as an anchor for your reading, place the High Priestess as card one, the Sun card as card two and the card that represents the sign you're working with as card three, and ask 'what do I need to work with/around this new/full Moon?'

Take three cards, place them under the relevant card in order. The High Priestess tells you the inner choices, the Sun tells you outer circumstances and the Sign card tells you the earthly manifestation.

Keywords for sign. (Add as many of your own as you want) home loving, nurturing, family orientated, moody, emotional, compassionate

Is it personal to me and why?

This is my Sun sign, so as a Cancer it's likely to bring my insides out! In other words I may be more emotional and really feel the need for release. I also notice that I don't sleep very well when the Moon is full.

Information from my Tarot spread, if using it

My cards suggesting I needed more rest, perhaps to understand a family situation that wasn't going as I planned.

My intentions under this Moon.

I welcome in the opportunity to release blockages in my life that prevent me from expressing myself fully. I see the release aspect of the Moon as an opportunity to have those conversations I need to have rather than keeping things inside.
