

Session 7

Consolidation

Order and Timing

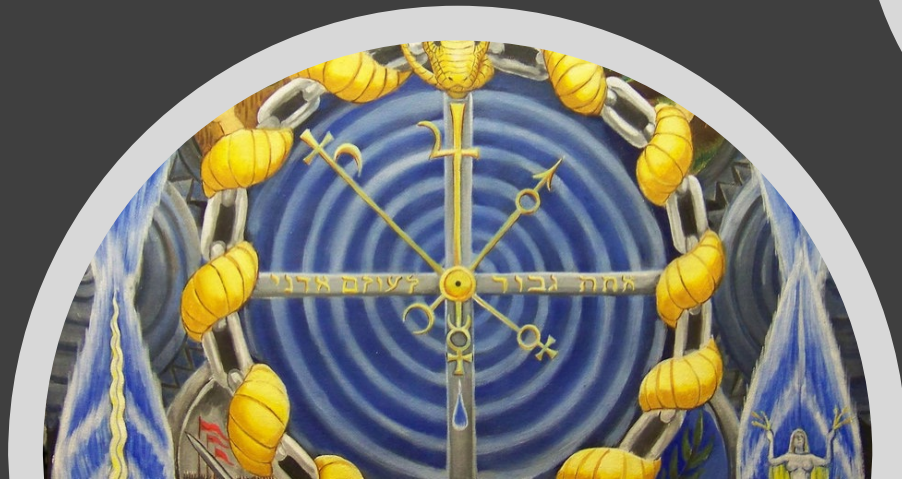

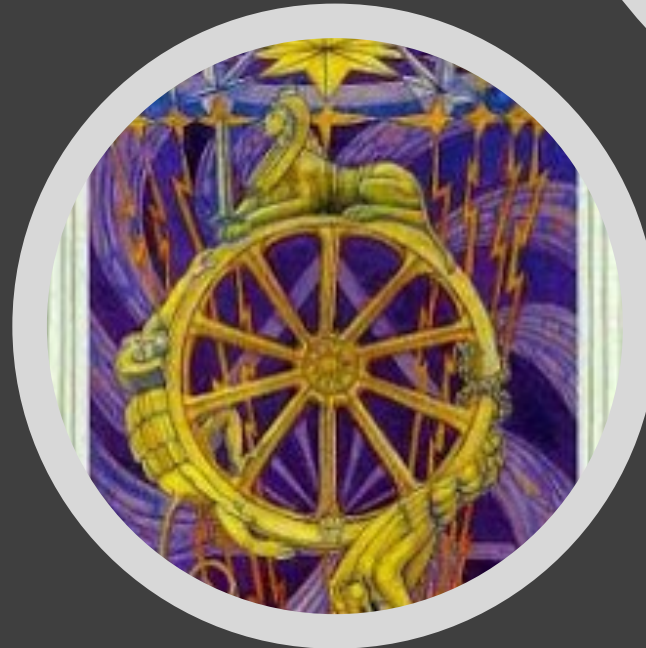

Jupiter's Energy

- Jupiter in your chart is often seen as a place where you can experience good fortune, if it's in the second for example it could be a financial gain brought about through a lotto win for example. But. It can also be a famine or feast, boom or bust indicator too. Just remember that he expands everything he touches, sometimes to the point of bursting.
- Look at Jupiter in your chart and consider where your luck sits, has it been a fortunate placement for you or is that good fortune waiting to be tapped into?
- Consider your timing, can you wait for a better situation to present itself based on your Jupiter vibes? A house move, job change etc?

The Wheel of Fortune

- Unlike recent cards this one is usually met with a smile, thank goodness, a bit of luck at last!
- Usually a wheel is involved, funny that, but the shape and the creatures on it remind us that sometimes you can be riding at the top of the wheel and sometimes hanging on, so maybe not always as welcome as you'd think? Look at any cards surrounding The Wheel of Fortune for a greater overview.
- If it comes up in your consolidation consider what you could push a bit further, take care not to push to far, but what could literally be helped by pushing your luck?
- Fate has a way of putting opportunities in front of you, but only you can take them and some may not come around again until the wheel turns in your favour once more.

A Fated Day

- Are you brave enough to take the fated day challenge?
- Simply put, you make your decisions based solely on the toss of a coin.
- Not meant for big decisions, just a way to highlight how every choice has an element of fate, order and timing as you decide when to put the coin into play. You kind of do that in real life anyway, don't you? When to let fate play out, when to intervene?
- Flip the coin, make heads your proceed indicator and tails your find another way choice. See how it affects your day, can you trust in fate or are you going to ignore it because the coin goes against what you really feel? Is your gut instinct more powerful than any divination technique?
- OR as the coin flips in that very moment you know what you want because you automatically hope for the heads or tails? Fate can push you into admitting what you really, really want.

Temple Set up

- There is a journey to be made to reach this temple, the reality is you've already done the hard work, so now you recognise it for yourself but also with your magical helpers too.

- This temple is cold, it's crisp and clear and is set on top of a mountain, prepare to climb. With each step be more determined to reach the summit, each step will be taken in order and perfectly timed to have you reach the summit in time to see the sunrise behind this temple of sapphires.

- The Universal Being is Antonista, your Antonista, holder of the great keys of peace and the divine channel that meets your soul on the edge of the higher realms where Archangels commune directly with the source.

- Meet Antonista and your higher guide, form alliances and make your contract with them.

Correspondences

- Four of Wands – Lord of Completion, the job may be done and well done, but what's next?
- Four of Cups – Lord of Luxury, count your blessings, appreciate those who love you and love them right back!
- Four of Swords – Lord of Truce, call a halt, take the higher ground and after what may be some harsh words find a way through.
- Four of Disks – Lord of Power, when you have achieved success share it, be that financially or with your advice. Keep it moving

For Your Altar and Room

- Incense: cedar
- Planet: Jupiter
- Crystal: sapphire, blue crystals or glass
- Element: water
- Plant: bulrush, cornflower
- Traditional Archangel: Tzadkiel
- New Universal Being: Antonista

Antonista

- Antonista appears very fleetingly, a being of such immense power and size it's difficult to be fully in his/her presence. You will see this energy in your own way, and rightly so, but for me it's very difficult to describe. That was something I really struggled with, until I realised that it's exactly as it should be!
- Work with this energy to bring attention to your goals, to the work you've already put in and to know that you're ready to proceed and seek a little help along the way.
- Ask Antonista for exactly what it is you want, let this energy carry your desires out into the Universe and to help make it so.

Consolidation

- “Observe due measure, for right timing is in all things the most important factor.” Hesiod (Greek Poet)

I have a dream: is it the same as last month, or have you made some changes?

- Astrology: Where is Jupiter in your chart, what house, what sign? That information is in your natal chart. What does it tell you about luck, fortune, timing? What words would you use to describe your responses to your astrology?
- Tarot Cards: what cards came up more than once in your daily reading. The four fours represent this energy, have they been dominant and if so, what suit? _____
- The Celtic Cross, or a three card reading: what information does it have for you?
- Antonista: what guidance did that offer you?
- Other temple images and symbolism: Cards, animals, beings, who you saw and what they had to offer you in the way of information.
- How has it manifested in your life?
- Moving forward I commit to: using your newfound information what changes can you make to honour timing, play your cards right?

- Choose a day and time for your temple

- Set up and complete the temple meditation

- Consolidate your experiences

- Continue to take your daily card

- Continue with interwoven light meditation as and when you feel the need

Next Meeting Online is:

Session Eight: Polarity

You know what polarity is right? It's usually the opposite, like north and south poles, but isn't it also how they work together and the fact that they are opposites makes them attractive to each other? Yin and Yang, one just not as effective without its counterpart. How does it show up in your life?
